DETAILED ACTION

Remarks

1. Applicant's After Final Amendment dated July 27, 2005, incorporated the subject matter previously indicated as allowable.
2. U.S. Pat. 3,420,318 discloses a fluid bearing having adjustable fluid restrictors (R). However, the fluid restrictors are not "disposed within each groove" where the grooves are edged on the surface. Therefore, the restrictors are not "surface restrictors," since the restrictor is not on the surface, but between the groove (32) and orifice (60).
